

CAPA as ALN Tool: Workshop 2000

February 19, 2000
Michigan State University

– 9:00 - 9:05      Workshop Goals ..... Ed Kashy

• Morning Session I.

– 9:05 - 9:40      Introduction to CAPA 5.1 ..... Guy Albertelli

– 9:40 - 10:00     CAPA 5.1, questions and comments ..... Discussion

– 10:00 - 10:30    Making better use of records, reports, and statistics ..... Discussion

– Coffee Break –

• Morning Session II. Chair: Jack Rapaport

– 10:50 - 11:10    Question Design ..... Paul Hunter

– 11:10 - 11:30    Assignments in Computer Science ..... Isaac Tsai

– 11:30 - 11:45    Non-Chug-and-Plug Problems ..... Ed Kashy

– 11:45 - 12:15    Content Development: Relations with Textbook Publishers ..... Michael Thoennessen

– 12:15 - 12:30    Question Design and Cost Effectiveness ..... Discussion

– Lunch – NSCL Atrium –

• Afternoon Session I. Chair: Doug Welch

– 1:35 - 1:50      Food Service 2000 Update ..... Diane Golzynski

– 1:50 - 2:10      Integrating Personalized Computer Simulations into CAPA ..... Guy Ashkenazi

– 2:10 - 2:30      CAP: Computer Assisted Physics ..... David Pang

– 2:30 - 2:50      Combinations with Other Technological Tools ..... Discussion

– 2:50 - 3:10      A Web Interface for CAPA Tools (cancelled due to weather) ..... Hon-Kie Ng

– 3:10 - 3:30      Why are some professors reluctant to use CAPA? ..... Discussion

– Coffee Break –

• Afternoon Session II. Chair: Jerry Hinnefeld

– 3:50 - 4:10      CAPA at USC: Homework and Exams, Outreach Program ..... Chaden Djalali

– 4:10 - 4:40      Introduction to LON-CAPA ..... Gerd Kortemeyer

– 4:40 - 5:10      Where is CAPA heading? Where should it be heading? ..... Discussion

– 5:10 - 5:30      Summary of Workshop Accomplishments and Suggestions, Survey

– Pizza & Pop – 6:00, NSCL Atrium –

Supported by:
Alfred P. Sloan Foundation
Mellon Foundation
College of Natural Science
National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory
Michigan State University